SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION:

SWEA Orange County grants an annual scholarship to full time students interested in learning about Swedish culture by pursuing studies in Sweden. The scholarship is currently available to students at University of California, Irvine who also are participants in the UCEAP Reciprocity Program in partnership with University of Lund and University of Stockholm, Sweden. The scholarship amounts up to $5,000 to one student, or to be divided between two or more students, depending on the students' qualifications and their length of stay in Sweden. (Relatives and/or dependents of SWEA members are not eligible.)

The applicant must meet these eligibility criteria:

- Sophomore class standing or higher
- Minimum GPA 3.0

To apply, the student must submit the following information:

1. Completed application form
2. Academic transcripts (copies are OK)
3. Essay describing
 - Purpose of visit to Sweden
 - Reason for interest in Sweden
 - Special reasons why student qualifies for scholarship

Upon his/her return to California, the student will be expected to attend a SWEA event and/or share his/her experiences and impressions of Sweden with SWEA OC.

The scholarship application and essay must be sent via email no later than March 31, 2022.
